

A1

B1

An abstract geometric design featuring a large, irregular shape defined by black lines. The shape has several sharp angles and curves. In the center of this shape, the text "B2" is written in a large, bold, gray font. The background is white, and the entire design is framed by a dashed black border. There are also some smaller black lines and segments scattered around the main shape.
